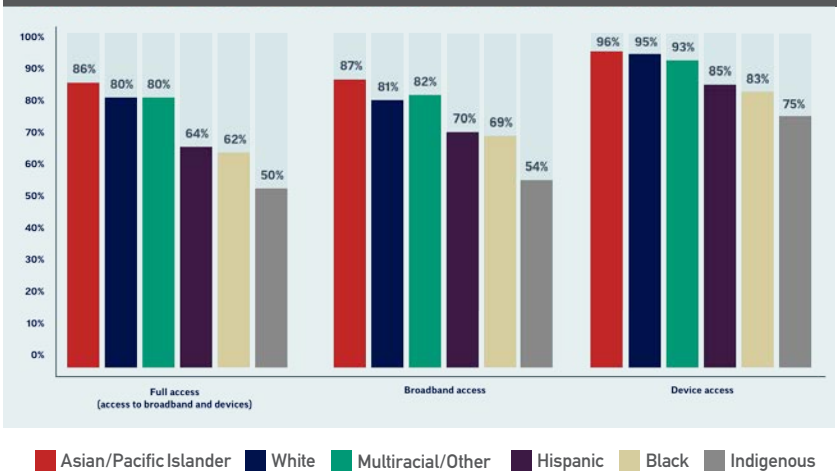
TRENDING

AT A GLANCE

Students of color do not have the same access to devices or to broadband



Source: NEA

PRINCIPOLL

How does your school empower students? (Select up to three.)

Enables choices for students to foster growth in their learning
70%

Creates opportunities for authentic learning and demonstration
60%

Develops learning that is personally relevant to students
40%

Facilitates changes to learning spaces that keep minds engaged
30%

Coaches students on methods to improve their learning skills
20%

10 votes

*Respondents could choose multiple answers; therefore, percentages exceed 100%

—CHAT SNAP—

Jared C Wastler | @jcwastler

Q2: What strategies are you using to recognize students for their continued efforts as learners? #APChat

Jody Ratti | @JCRattiFCPS

A2: Thanks to two of our amazing staff members, we honor two students of the week every week, and I make it a point to nominate one frequently. I also make sure to share those nominations on social media. #APChat

Lindsay H. Walker EdD | @HarmonWalkerL

A2: Yard signs, lunch with principal, morning announcement shoutouts, social media shoutouts, community bus ride/home visits with books for remote students. #APChat

Join our weekly Twitter chats on Sunday evenings: #APChat and #PrinLeaderChat