

TRENDING

AT A GLANCE

Survey results show the coronavirus has had a negative impact on mental health

Percent who say they feel that worry or stress related to coronavirus has had a negative impact on their mental health:

SOURCE: KFF HealthTracking Poll (conducted March 25–30, 2020). See topline for full question wording.

PRINCIPOLL

How does your school provide students with college and career readiness? (Select any that apply.)

Opportunities for technical certifications
83.33%

AP and dual-enrollment curriculum to build college credits
83.33%

Ability to explore passions in the curriculum
66.67%

Career academies to build CTE skills
66.67%

Local business partnerships/internships
66.67%

6 votes

*Respondents could choose multiple answers; therefore, percentages exceed 100%.

—CHAT SNAP—

Jared C Wastler | @jcwastler

Q3: Acknowledging resistance requires understanding difficult conversations. How are you building your capacity to facilitate difficult conversations? #APChat

Jody Ratti | @JCRattiFCPS

A3: I'm terrible at this. The only thing I do is commit. @johnnorlin says the only way out is through, so if I have to do it ... I'll commit. Ultimately no one likes them, so a collaborative atmosphere is imperative, and I do what I can ... #APChat

Eric L Fox | @OkEricFox

A3: And I have to remember that a conversation is two-way communication. Part of having the courage for a difficult conversation means I have to be willing to hear what the other person says as unpleasant as it may be. #APChat

Join our weekly Twitter chats on Sunday evenings:
#APChat and
#PrinLeaderChat